What is Red Rooster Winery?

“Red Rooster Winery was founded in 1990 by a European couple who settled in the Okanagan area. Our first vintage was released in 1997. It was not long before our winery became known for producing award-winning wines that express the very best of BC and the Okanagan. Despite our quirks, this is the part that we take very seriously.

“We also became known for a certain style of hospitality that wasn’t quite like the other wineries in the area. With this in mind, we built the current Red Rooster winery. Just a few kilometers from our original site, the winery is located on Naramata Bench Road. Salvaged wood from the original Naramata Train Dock was used to build the large arched doorways that form the entrances to our tasting room. The art displays, large patio and open grounds encourage visitors to stay awhile. The statue of the naked guy, well, he raises a few eyebrows.”
